A scholar was giving a lecture and said that, 'in the Qur'aan there is an answer for every single thing.' so a man put up his hand and said, 'you said in the Qur'aan you have the answer for every single thing. If i would like to buy a loaf of bread and i dont know where the bakery is can i find the address in the Qur'aan?' The Shaykh replied, 'yes, the Qur'aan will solve that problem. The Qur'aan says 'ask those who know if you do not know' so go and ask those who know.'
